SUNDAY 10TH FEBRUARY 2019

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The First Reading – In the presence of God’s glory, Isaiah feels sinful, unclean. But once he has experienced forgiveness, Isaiah is ready and willing to be God’s messenger, willing to accept his calling as a prophet.

The Second Reading – Paul urges the Corinthians to be steadfast in believing the gospel he has preached to them. There will always be temptations to turn to right or to left, but we are called to perseverance in the truth.

The Gospel – At the heart of this Gospel reading are St Peter’s wonderful words. He is tired and despondent, yet he says to the Lord: ‘If you say so...’

CONGREGATION OF THE SACRED HEARTS: As you know the Pastoral care of the parish of Our Lady of Lourdes and St. Aidan’s is entrusted to the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts. As a congregation we have other pastoral ministries and responsibilities both in Ireland and in England with brothers working from various communities. In order to respond best to these pastoral needs, from time to time situations arise where moving personnel becomes necessary. Nobody likes change or moves, thus they are not taken lightly. The leadership team of the congregation in consultation with the personnel involved make these often hard decisions, after much prayer, reflection and discernment. We are well aware of the many changes that have taken place in recent times in our parishes and partly because of these; we have had to reassess our ministries and personnel. In the light of this it has been decided that Fr. Ultan will move from our parish ministry and return to Ireland, where he will take up ministry our Dublin parish, Sruleen. We will be very sorry to see Fr. Ultan leave and I know he will be greatly missed. Fr. Pearse Mullen, whom you may have met last September when he came to the parish to help us out, is appointed to the parish team. I know you will make him feel very welcome. These changes will take place from the beginning of Lent. Please keep both Fr. Ultan and Fr. Pearse in your prayers at this time of change.
