Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first reading – What is the final aim and purpose of our Christian faith? It is happiness! The prophet tells us that God will wipe away the tears from every cheek, and that we can already experience joy in anticipation of this.

The second reading – Paul's service of Christ gives him great inner freedom. His dependence on Christ gives him great independence. As a disciple, he is prepared for all circumstances.

The Gospel – The first part of Jesus' parable tells us that it's not being invited that counts, but accepting the invitation. The second part tells us that there is more to accepting the invitation than simply turning up: there is a whole life, a whole inner attitude, that Jesus compares to being properly dressed for a banquet.

Tea and Coffee: after 9am and 10.30am Mass today. Do please join us.

The old £1 coins: will no longer be legal tender from this Sunday (15 October 2017). It would help the volunteers who count the weekly collection if you did not put the old £1 coins into the collection anymore as they cannot be banked and will therefore not count towards the weekly offertory collection. Thank you very much.
