Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first reading from the prophet Isaiah, is an inclusive vision of all nations being called to act justly and with integrity in order to dwell with God on the holy mountain.

The second reading, from St Paul's letter to the Romans, proclaims God's unrelenting mercy and faithfulness in the face of disobedience and rejection.

The Gospel of Matthew uses the timeless example of a mother's persistent love and care for her child to illustrate the vital importance of faith and perseverance.

Invite someone to Church: Please do consider inviting someone new to mass and help support them and integrate them in our parish community. Look out for someone new in our Church and welcome them.

Welcome to Fr Richard ssc one of our sacred hearts priests all the way from Indonesia who is visiting us in Acton for two weeks. Thanks to all those who were praying that he would get his visa which thankfully he did two days before he was due to leave Indonesia. We also welcome Br José from Spain who is with us for one week and Fr Mike Maher from California who is staying with the Ealing Community.

"Gloria Dei": our coffee morning and film on the feast of Annunciation was a lovely spiritual experience. Many thanks again to all who so generously supported us by their presence and most generous donations of
