3rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Opening Comment, Coming together as God's family we are united in prayer through the celebration of the Eucharist with the Christian community throughout the world.

Readings

The first reading, from the prophet Isaiah, presents a vision of joy at the coming of the light of God into the lives of the sad and oppressed.

The second reading, from St Paul, is an appeal for an end to disagreements between believers who should be united by their common Baptism.

The Gospel – As John the Baptist is silenced, Jesus begins his work in Galilee, fulfilling the Word of God and taking up John's message of repentance. (Synopsis Intercom)

Announcements

Octave Prayer for Christian Unity - 18th – 25th January mass for the unity of Christians will be celebrated during the ferial days.

"In order to unite with one another, we must love one another; in order to love one another, we must know one another; in order to know one another, we must go and meet one another".

These words, known as the "Testament of Cardinal Mercier," are an impetus for the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. The octave, eight days has been celebrated continuously since 1894.
